

Romance in the 21st Century

Reading and Writing Romance in a Changing World

Kate Austin

Eileen Cook

R.G. Hart

Susan Lyons/Fox

Lee McKenzie

Wednesday
February 8

7:00 p.m.

Alma VanDusen &
Peter Kaye Rooms
Lower Level
Central Library
350 West Georgia St.

Admission is free
Seating is limited

The world of publishing is changing. From the growth of ebooks/digital publishing to competing for a reader's attention with Twitter and Facebook, today's writers are working harder than ever to stay current in the changing publishing landscape.

Five published authors dish on the industry, how they were published, how romance is changing, and pretty much anything else you'd like to know.

They represent sexy and sweet contemporary romance, young adult fiction, romantic suspense, and paranormal fiction. They are published in print and electronic formats by publishers including Harlequin, Berkley/Penguin, Simon and Schuster, Kensington, Wild Rose Press and Sapphire Blue Publishing.

This presentation is designed for readers and writers and those who like discussing books.

For more information about this event, contact Popular Reading Library at 604-331-3691 or see www.rwagvc.com.

Co-sponsored by:

Vancouver Public Library
www.vpl.ca